JOB TITLE POSTING: Elementary Teacher

The Ojibway Nation of Saugeen is looking for a hardworking, energetic, dependable OCT (Ontario College of Teachers) qualified individual to join our team as auxiliary support for Spec Ed, prep coverage, and teachable rotary for eight students (at present) in two classes (JK-3, 5-8).

Ojibway Nation of Saugeen (ONS)

ONS is a beautiful, fairly isolated, drive-in First Nation Community in northern Ontario located about a 4-hour drive northwest of Thunder Bay, and a 1.5-hour drive east of Sioux Lookout. It is a cozy community of about 90 community members surrounded by scenic lakes and boreal forest with opportunities to fish, hunt, or simply hike or snowshoe around, depending on the season. The school is clean, well-appointed, and well-stocked with most typical resources of southern community schools. Of note is the fact that the community has yet to secure cell-phone access for this area. There is also no store in the community and candidates would be encouraged to have use of a vehicle to be able to drive into neighbouring communities such as Sioux Lookout and Dryden for occasional shopping needs.
